

REACQUAINTED AFTER TEN YEARS— The Class of 1964 of the old Fulton High School held its ten-year reunion on Saturday, August 17. Class members from as far away as California returned to Fulton to participate in the festivities which were highlighted by a clambake at Mr. Mike's Clambake Shed. Those who attended are pictured here.